The Annual Fund — one ends, the next begins

Gratitude phoners break for pizza

The Annual Fund is not "wicked", but the saying "No rest for the wicked" certainly applies to it, because the minute one ends, the next one begins — in case you have not noticed!

Congratulations and thanks are again due to all the St. Michael's alumni and friends whose generosity in the 1995-96 Annual Fund enabled us once more to provide the allocated sums to the projects the Alumni Board of Directors established. For the sixth year in a row, the Annual fund produced well over a half million dollars, but it fell just short of that illusive goal of $600,000.

The Alumni Board is determined to reach, and rise above, that $600,000 plateau. President Richard Alway recently noted, "the College will experience the results of the recent further provincial government cutbacks in its support of university education, and this makes the Annual Fund more crucial than ever in St. Michael's continuing efforts to maintain its tradition of excellence in Catholic higher education."

Again this year, the monies donated to the 1996-97 Annual Fund has been allocated by the Alumni Board to help support the work of the chaplaincy, to assist students, to put new books on the shelves of the John M. Kelly Library, to provide salaries for St. Michael's professors in the College Programmes of Christianity and Culture and in Celtic Studies, to assist in meeting the

Administrative Appointments at St. Michael's

The Collegium of the University of St. Michael's College has appointed Professor Joseph Boyle to a second five-year term as Principal of St. Michael's College, and Fr. Brian Hogan, C.S.B. as Dean of the Faculty of Theology for a five-year term. Both appointments took effect on 1 July 1996.

Professor Boyle is a member of the Philosophy Department, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in Ethics. He has published and lectured extensively on the just-war theory and on bio-medical ethics. As Principal he is responsible for the undergraduate programme at the College and for our relationship with the UofT Faculty of Arts and Science. It will be his special task in the coming year, along with managing a reduced budget, to co-ordinate the incorporation into the St. Michael's Community of the UofT professors occupying some of the newly established academic offices in the Clover Hill Building.

Spring, Memories, Celebration II

Remember Saturday 27 May 1995? It was the day of SPRING MEMORIES CELEBRATION I, that wonderful everyone-invited celebration of the life and community of St. Michael's with enjoyable entertainment, delicious food and drink, the tempting silent auction, the interesting displays (and the minimal cost).

Well, we know such a wonderful day cannot be repeated, so we are planning a different kind of SPRING MEMORIES CELEBRATION that will be just as wonderful, with, yes, enjoyable entertainment, delicious food and drink, a tempting silent auction, interesting displays, and all with, as yet, a mystery theme! The month will be April, the exact date is yet to be confirmed.

We shall keep you informed of the details of SPRING MEMORIES CELEBRATION II. Anyone who wishes to get involved in the planning, in the organization, and in the presentation of the event, please call the Alumni Office, 416-926-7260. These successes do not, as you well know, happen by themselves; we need your ideas, your help, your hard work, and "a bit of your time."

On the evening of 9 May Cardinal Gerald Emmett Carter, Chancellor of the University of St. Michael's College, dedicated and blessed Sam Sorbara Hall (formerly known as the Assembly Hall) in Brennan Hall. Mrs. Rose Wolfe, Chancellor of the University of Toronto, represented the University and brought greetings from University of Toronto President Robert Prichard.

The dedication ceremony, set in a gala reception in the newly decorated and equipped hall, was attended by some 500 friends and associates of the Sorbara family and of St. Michael's. Although illness hindered Mr. Sam Sorbara from being present, his wife Grace, and their children, Edward, Joseph, Marcella Tanzola, and Gregory, and several grandchildren and other relatives were present.

Edward, Joseph, Marcella, and Gregory, like their father, were students at St. Michael's, and at this year's June Convocation, Gregory Tanzola was the first of the third generation of the Sorbara family to graduate from St. Michael's and the University of Toronto.

In his remarks of welcome, President Richard Alway referred to the seven-decade association of Sam Sorbara and St. Michael's, and expressed the College's gratitude for the large and very generous donation the Sorbara family made to the College's 1988-1992 Capital Campaign.

This contribution, he said, "had a substantial effect in helping St Michael's attain its fundraising goal,...and inspiring other donors to follow their generous example."

President Alway spoke of the involvement of Sam and Grace Sorbara, and later their children, in a variety of social and charitable causes associated with the Italian community as well as with the wider society.

He made the point that "the Sorbaras recognize that if our children and our children's children are to benefit from institutions such as St. Michael's, we must attend to the health of these institutions now. They have a sense of stewardship—a recognition of our responsibility to preserve that which has enriched us so it can be passed on for the benefit of future generations."

He then drew attention to the fact that Sam Sorbara Hall "is the largest lecture facility on the east campus of the University of Toronto, a focal point of our College, a place where young people come to listen and to learn."

Mr. Joe Lo Presti, President of the St. Michael's College Student Union, expressed the thanks of the student body to the Sorbara family. Marcella Sorbara Tanzola 6T's, representing the Sorbara family, recalled her father's long association with St. Michael's and with the Basilian Fathers, and spoke movingly of his life and of his pride in and dedication to his family and his Italian heritage.

The dedication ceremony concluded with the unveiling of a portrait of Sam Sorbara which now hangs in the room, and with the presentation of a commemorative plaque to the Sorbara family. The festivities continued as the guests lingered over delicious refreshments served to the pleasant music of the Emperor Quartet.

It was a very special St. Michael's evening, thanks to the Sorbara family and to the efforts of Maude McCarty, St. Michael's Director of Development, and of her assistant, Lisa Grislis.

Mrs. Grace Sorbara with her and Sam's children, Marcella Tanzola, Gregory, Edward, and Joseph. Generous and faithful friends of St. Michael's.

1996 Convocation

By Michael Doyle 9T6

With late spring comes the annual Convocation at St. Michael's and the inevitable end to years of immersion in collegiate life, both academic and beyond. 18 June witnessed the formal conferral of degrees on the Class of 9T6.

The ceremonies began with the traditional morning Baccalaureate Mass in St. Basil's Church, celebrated by Fr. John Reddy, C.S.B., College Chaplain. In attendance were Archbishop Aloysius Ambrozic of Toronto, Archbishop Francis Spence of Kingston, who would be invested as an Honorary Fellow of St. Michael's during the Mass, Bishop John Sherlock of London, and the Right Honourable John Turner, who would receive an honorary doctorate from the UoT at Convocation later in the day.

Pleasant weather held for the graduands and their families and friends, but the humidity inside Convocation Hall was nevertheless traditionally formidable. John Turner's inspiring Convocation address challenged the graduands to act in a world overrun with critics, and to realize one's duty to both nation and to neighbor.

After the ceremony had sufficiently mingled bittersweet memory with celebration and relief, most of St. Michael's Class of 9T6 repaired to Brennan Hall for much needed refreshments.

The day on campus concluded with the Awards Ceremony, during which recognition was given to those who had excelled academically. Special awards were given to Julie-Anne and Anne-Marie Emili, joint recipients of the Marina Santin Award; to Shirley Sequiera, winner of the W.B. Dunphy Award; and to Frank Margani, recipient of the Principal's Medal.

For all the graduates, the day was an awards ceremony, a major milestone which left us with a sense of accomplishment and blessing.

Class Rep meetings: parley and poll

A group of the Class Reps at one of the focus meetings

In April the Class Reps of all years were invited to a meeting with Fr. Robert Madden and several members of the Alumni Board: Marcella Tanzola, Class Rep Liaison; Maureen Hart, President of the Board; Marie Daly, Patricia Buckley, Frank Kiely, Bill Reid, and Maureen Rocchi.

The purpose of the meeting was to hear the Class Reps' ideas and opinions on three major areas of Alumni Activity: Reunions, Events and Communication. At the end of the meeting the Class Reps completed a questionnaire.

The Alumni Association was grateful to all who participated in the meeting and to those Class reps who, although they were not able to attend, completed and returned the questionnaire. Frank Kiely, President of National Opinion Polls, tabulated the results of our poll and provided the Association with a thorough report. The suggestions received from the Class Reps, and the results of the poll will help the Alumni Association better serve the Alumni.

If the lively exchange of ideas, the generosity of commitment, and the fondness for St. Michael's that was demonstrated at the meetings are barometers of the health of the St. Michael's Alumni Association, then we know that we are alive and well and thriving. Thank you Class Reps!

Fr. Owen Lee, C.S.B. again makes music beautiful

The audience of over 100 who came to the Eighth Annual Alumni Opera Lecture at St. Michael's on 28 April had high expectations—they were not disappointed. Once again Fr. Owen Lee, C.S.B. 5T3 brought his literary, musical, and historical knowledge, talent, and insights to bear on Wagner's Tristan und Isolde.

With his usual sensitivity, understanding and compassion, touched with gentle humour, he spoke of the circumstances of the opera's composition, initial production, subsequent performances, and presented a most interesting and moving analysis of the dramatic action.

Fr. Lee's listeners were most appreciative of the new light he shed on Wagner's story of tragic love, as well as of his summary of the better recordings available. And now we look forward to Fr. Lee's Ninth Alumni Opera Lecture in April 1997! It will deal with Faust.

Dean's teaching and research has been the social teachings of the Catholic Church, Catholic Education, and the relationship among religious, educational, social and voluntary movements in the modern period. A past President of the Canadian Historical Association, he is currently Chaplain of the Thomas More Guild of the Archdiocese of Toronto and is involved in the organization of the annual Michaelmas Conference. He also coaches the St. Michael's men's UofT intramural hockey team, which, under his guidance, won the Jennings Cup a few years ago.

The St. Michael's Alumni Association welcomes these appointments, congratulates Principal Boyle and Dean Hogan, and looks forward to a very fruitful association with them.

costs of the Writing Lab, of the Continuing Education programme, and of many other spiritual, intellectual, cultural, social, and athletic events and activities that are at the core of the distinct student experience at St. Michael's.

There is something very special about this year's Annual Fund: the opportunity to increase the College's student aid endowment fund. The Ontario Provincial Government will match, dollar for dollar, all new money given for student aid between now and 31 May 1997, and the University of Toronto will do the same. Students, experiencing difficulties in finding summer employment, are at the same time faced with unavoidably increased tuition, other academic fees, and residence room and board costs; every dollar donated during the period indicated above will become three dollars to help them with their educational costs.

The College needs your help in the other areas supported by the Annual Fund and hopes that you can add something extra to your 1996-97 Annual Fund donation to take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity to make a major contribution to today's students and tomorrow's leaders.

Class of 5T5 — what a good example

Oliver Babirad and his busy band of helpers keep their Class of 5T5 a model of class spirit and planning. On the 23 June weekend twenty-five of the class gathered for a "pot luck" dinner, one event in the "keeping-in-touch" programme they initiated at their 40th anniversary reunion a year ago. The majority of those attending the "pot luck" were from the Toronto area, but plans to meet more of the class from farther afield are being developed. They also plan to form a special "45th Reunion Homecoming Committee" in preparation for Spring Reunion in the year 2000. There are also concerted and co-ordinated efforts to locate classmates whose addresses are out of date.

Congratulations (and thanks!) to Oliver and his trusty troop; their dedication, hard work, and continuing interest in each other and in St. Mike's are a great example to us all. News of any such gatherings by other classes would be most welcome, and could be noted in future issues of this newsletter.

Spring Reunion

(Photos, unless otherwise noted, by Janet Loo, assisted by Janice Wong)

The weekend of 31 May-2 June saw the St. Michael's and the University campus come alive with graduates and their guests and friends returning to celebrate the respective anniversaries of their graduation. Members of the classes from 2T1 to 7T6 enjoyed the various events, and the Class Representatives deserve our gratitude for their work. So, thank you Marie Foley Garvey, Larry Lynch, Sr. Esther Hanley, I.R.V.M., Mel O'Donohue, Nick Belak, Bill Broadhurst, Karen Tuckey Abbott, Marty and Mary Vale Hughes, Muriel Cassidy Doyle, Joan Codarini O'Keefe, and Connie Roveto. The following account by Karen Tuckey Abbott, ever-faithful Class Rep for 5T6, captures the spirit of her class and that of the whole Reunion weekend.

The Class of 1956 (and all the others!) had a great reunion. Over 30 of us participated at some time during the three days. Notes of regret were received from Sr. Shirley Kitagawa and Yvonne Adams.

Friday evening saw almost 200 members of the featured years get together in the Odette Lounge in Brennan Hall for drinks, nibbles and lots of reminiscing. Following this, the class of '56 gathered at Loretto, where arrangements had been made for us to have a gathering room for our class. Thanks go to Sr. Jeanne Cover for her interest and hard work in setting up the parlour and cleaning it up after the refreshments we shared while we told stories, laughed, and looked at old pictures. Have we really changed that much? The parlour was well used both Friday night and after dinner Saturday. The weekend included many different activities - theatre (Phantom, Forever Plaid, etc.), lunch at the waterfront, tours of the campus, museum and art gallery visits, the President's garden party (some of us had never been before - it was delightful) and just walking around the city in the magnificent weather.

Saturday night included some people we had not seen on Friday, so more catching up to do. A great dinner was enjoyed by over 260 alumni and guests; we watched the award-winning video about the College, and Principal Joseph Boyle and President Richard Alway brought us up to date on recent developments. The evening continued in the Odette Lounge with more happy trips down memory lane. The weekend concluded Sunday with a special Mass in the College chapel followed by a delicious hot breakfast with a few alumni we had not seen until then. So more stories and laughter!

Our consensus was, we didn't look too bad after forty years and we made a date for 2001. Can you believe it?

Continuing Education Celebrates Ten Years

The Continuing Education Division marked its tenth anniversary year with a two day Conference on "Ethical Issues for the Next Millennium" 30-31 May. Dr. Richard Gula, author of Reason Informed by Faith: Foundations of Catholic Morality, opened the conference with a keynote address entitled "Surveying the Landscape of Ethical Pluralism".

Some 200 participants went on to enjoy a panel presentation which applied the five approaches to moral decisions outlined in Dr. Gula's lecture to a case scenario dealing with the issue of confidentiality and the public's "right to know".

Over a dozen workshops addressed a variety of ethical issues, including medical, political, and educational dilemmas. A highlight of the Conference was a luncheon with guest speaker Ursula Franklin. Dr. Franklin's address, "Coping with the Ethical Problems of a Technological Society", will be available from the Continuing Education Office later this fall. (416-926-7254). So positive was the response to the conference that Continuing Education plans to host an annual colloquium on Ethics. "Reflections on Ethics and Media" will inaugurate the new series in October, 1997.

Young Alumni Activities

The St. Michael's Young Alumni Group sponsored another series of successful events. The tickets reserved for the season's last Raptors' home basketball game were all sold before the announcement flier was circulated—we'll reserve more next time. The casual May evening gathering at The Morrissey attracted some 30 grads, who enjoyed reuniting with friends and reacquainting themselves with all the unique charms and delectables of "The Mo." The highlight event was Wine Tour '96, as you can see from this account of the Niagara excursion by John Hayes 9T1, instrumental in arranging the tour:

On Saturday 15 June forty-five adventurous alumni boarded a bus at St. Mike's and headed to Ontario's Niagara Region. Their quest: the perfect glass of wine!

Led by tour guide and wine expert Mike Prestaya, the eager participants visited Kitling Ridge Estates Winery, Chateau De Charmes Estates, and Hilderbrand Estates. At each winery, they toured the facilities and learned first hand how the wines were created. Their attentiveness was rewarded at each stop by numerous samplings of each winery's fine product. A picnic lunch by the Niagara River allowed all to become more familiar with their favourite wines. The alumni then headed into Niagara-on-the-Lake for some rest and relaxation before heading home to the college.

"Oh, for a beaker full of the warm South... With beaded bubbles winking at the brim"—Keats had it right all along!

A fun day was had by all. Hope to see you and your glass in 1997!

Seventh Annual Alumni Lenten Twilight Retreat

In a context of prayer, quiet, and Eucharist, Professor Janine Langan of the St. Michael's Christianity and Culture Programme directed this year's Alumni Lenten Twilight Retreat. She spoke on the theme of unity as presented by Pope John Paul II in his recent writings on the approaching third millennium.

The evening began with a 6:00 P.M. buffet supper, and continued in the College Chapel with talks by Dr. Langan, a period of reflection and slides, with commentary by Dr. Langan, accompanied by harp and violin music provided by Cecilia Driscoll and Alex Cheung. The retreat concluded with the Eucharist.

Over 100 alumni and other friends took advantage of this opportunity to hear Dr. Langan and to draw aside from busy sched-

Thank you Father Michael Fahey, S.J.

The St. Michael's Alumni Association expresses its thanks to Fr. Michael Fahey, S.J. who completed ten years as Dean of the Faculty of Theology on 30 June 1996. We were all delighted to learn that Fr. Fahey will continue as a member of the Faculty of Theology. He has recently accepted the appointment as Editor of the prestigious theological journal, Theological Studies.

Fr. Fahey's tenure as Dean will be remembered for his work in strengthening the Faculty's academic character and its relationship to the Church and to the public world. His personal concern for the faculty, and his continued dedication, in the midst of administrative duties, to scholarly research, lecturing and writing, have been a source of support and of inspiration to his colleagues at St. Michael's.

Fr. Fahey, who studied under Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger and Hans Kung while pursuing his doctoral degree at the University of Tübingen, has made major contributions to the study of the theology of the Eastern Church, and to the ecumenical dialogues between the Roman Catholic Church and the Orthodox and the Anglican Churches.

The St. Michael's Alumni Association is particularly grateful to him for his invaluable work on the Kelly Lecture Committee in not only suggesting possible speakers, but also often approaching prospective lecturers on the Committee's behalf and arranging accommodations.

Plaque presented to honor Fr. Francis Duffy, SMC 1893, of "The Fighting 69th"

If you have been to Times Square in New York City you probably have noticed the statue of the World War I hero, Fr. Francis Duffy, Chaplain of the 69th National Guard Regiment, the Irish regiment of the city. The actor Pat O'Brien, portrayed him in the 1940 film The Fighting 69th. Born in Cobourg, Ont. in 1871, Fr. Duffy graduated from St. Michael's in 1893, and became a priest in the Archdiocese of New York, serving as teacher, seminary professor, and parish priest. He was appointed Chaplain to the 69th Regiment and accompanied them to battlefields of Europe, where his bravery in ministering to soldiers in life-threatening circumstances was recognized by military decorations from Great Britain, France, and the United States. His funeral in 1932 drew over 25,000 mourners, and a public subscription resulted in the casting of the statue that now stands in Times Square.

Mr. Trevor Hamilton, whose Canadian regimental band marches in the Annual New

Fr. Francis Duffy, 1871-1932, Class of 1893

Fr. Frank Mallon, C.S.B., Lt. Col. Kenneth H. Powers (N.Y.G. ret.), Mons. Edward Synan, President Richard Alway with plaque commemorating Fr. Duffy

York St. Patrick's Day Parade, became interested in Fr. Duffy's heritage, discovered his relation to St. Michael's, and the result was a ceremony in Charbonnel Lounge on 31 July 1996 at which Lt. Col. Kenneth H. Powers (N.Y.G. ret.), historian of the 69th Regiment, presented to President Richard Alway a commemorative plaque which will be placed in the John M. Kelly Library. Among those present at the ceremony were graduates of St. Michael's representing Canadian regiments, Monsignor Edward Synan, Fellow of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies and former U.S. Air Force Chaplain, and Fr. Frank Mallon, C.S.B., who had been present when Fr. Duffy returned to celebrate the College's 75th anniversary.

Five St. Michael's Graduates receive 1996 UofT Arbor Awards

Each year the University of Toronto presents the Arbor Award to individuals who have served the University in a volunteer capacity over a long period of time. On 14 May UofT President Robert Prichard hosted a reception at which the following St. Michael's graduates were honoured for their volunteer service to the University and to the College: Doreen Williams Bedard 5T8, George Delhomme 3T9, Christopher Driscoll 7T6, Mary Frances Mallon 2T3, and Sherrie Murphy 5Y9.

The St. Michael's Alumni Association congratulates each of them on this honour, and thanks them for their generous service.

1996 SMC Arbor Awardees: Sherrie Murphy, Mary Frances Mallon, Doreen Williams Bedard, Chris Driscoll
